

Make History Come Alive!

Become a Docent at Sonoma State Historic Park

California State Parks invites friendly people who love to learn to become volunteer historical docents.

Docents are specially trained to lead tours and explain exhibits.

Volunteering offers many benefits!

Help share our region's rich history with new and interesting people, enhance your public speaking skills, and contribute to your community!

Registration & Training:

- Our next 3-day docent training session will be held on May 21st, 22nd and June 4th.
- This free session will focus on Mission San Francisco Solano (the mission in downtown Sonoma), with docents becoming certified to lead tours there.
- After completion of training, docents are asked to spend three hours per month providing tours on Fridays, Saturdays, or Sundays.

California State Parks supports equal access. Prior to arrival, individuals with disabilities who need assistance should contact the park at (707) 939-2149.

For information and to register for this free training, contact

Ari DeMarco at (707) 939-2149 or ari.demarco@parks.ca.gov by May 1st.
